The Property

Corner House is a very pretty Grade II listed detached cottage constructed in the Tudor revival style in the mid-19th Century. The cottage is located in the very centre of the peaceful sought-after village of Leighterton and has an imposing presence with its attractive parapet gabled frontage and hood-moulded stone mullion windows. In modern times, the cottage has been largely extended at the rear and sympathetically updated. This wonderful character home offers 1,067 sq.ft. of accommodation arranged over two floors.

A rear entrance hall conveniently leads into the property from the parking area. The ground floor comprises a spacious kitchen/dining room fitted with modern units and solid timber worktops. The cosy living room is dual-aspect and features a stone fireplace with wood-burner inset. Off the hallway, there is a bathroom and useful utility room. The kitchen and the bathroom benefit from underfloor heating. Upstairs, there are three double bedrooms and an additional versatile room offering either a fourth bedroom/nursery, an office or dressing room. The rear bedroom has built-in cupboards and a lovely view across the fields.

The cottage benefits from private off-street parking for two cars over a gravelled driveway to the side. The garden has been superbly landscaped incorporating a fantastic social area of a seating terrace beside a wood-fired hot tub. A lawn is bound by raised borders whilst located at the foot of the garden there is a useful outbuilding complete with power, lighting and heating enabling it to be used as a home office/studio.
