Presented to a high standard throughout, this incredible home offers amazing internal proportions for the money. Arranged over two floors, every room you can think of is included. There are four well proportioned bedrooms, a large four piece family bathroom at first floor level as well as a ground floor shower room beyond the utility room by the back door. Both reception rooms are bound to impress and with the benefit of a log burner in each room, what's not to love. Open to the dining room is a well appointed modern kitchen that faces South over the good-sized enclosed courtyard garden. Located in central Bedlington, you'll struggle to find a better proportioned home, in as strong a location, for your money, elsewhere.
