- Brilliant Residential Location

Ideally located in the heart of central Bedlington, within one the most sought after collection of roads, we present to you this really well-proportioned three bedroom semi-detached home with a fantastic sized West facing garden. Well presented throughout, you still have the opportunity to add value through the modernisation of certain elements over time. Offered to market with no onward chain, the reception space on offer is generous, running the full depth of the home, offering direct garden access. Alongside the three-piece family bathroom, there are three good-sized bedrooms (two of which have built-in storage). Further benefits include a separate utility room (with downstairs WC) that sits just off the kitchen, tucked in behind the integrated single garage with own gated driveway to the front. You also have the added bonus of an enclosed entrance porch to keep the weather away from the immediate internal space of this inviting family home.
