This stunning and meticulously restored former Station House, complete with a generously sized annexe, enjoys a prime location with sweeping views over Tavistock and the majestic Dartmoor landscape. The Station House radiates Victorian charm, boasting high ceilings, abundant character, elegant décor, a magnificent kitchen, three bedrooms (including an en-suite wet room), and a family bathroom.

The annexe, accessible either through the main house or its own separate entrance, offers spacious accommodation, featuring two upstairs bedrooms (with en-suite and wet room), an additional downstairs walk-in wet room, and an open-plan kitchen/lounge—ideal for multigenerational living.

Approached via electric gates, the property provides ample parking, a large workshop, and front gardens with expansive views. The rear features a sizable sun terrace and a private courtyard garden. This exceptional property truly must be seen to be fully appreciated!
