NO CHAIN - A mid terraced house of considerable charm and character located to the shore side of Birkdale, close to Birkdale Village and the town centre.

Constructed by John Aughton around the mid 19th century, the property was interestingly built as Birkdale's first railway station with number 6 to house the Station Master and his Assistant. Later extended to the rear, the property offers deceptively spacious accommodation installed with gas central heating, and with the benefit of good size rear garden enjoying a southerly aspect. This accommodation briefly comprises Enclosed Vestibule, Hall, Fitted Cloakroom/wc, front Living Room, rear Sitting Room and open plan Dining Kitchen to the ground floor with three Bedrooms (the principal with "Jack and Jill" en suite Dressing Room), Bathroom and separate Shower Room. There are gardens to both the front and rear of the property, the good size rear garden enjoying a southerly aspect.

The location is particularly convenient for access to Lord Street which forms part of Southport town centre, the Promenade, Victoria Park and the beach. Also within walking distance is Birkdale Village with its shops, bars, restaurants and the railway station on the Southport to Liverpool line.
