This is a bungalow that ticks every single box, described as a quiet haven set up a private drive just a short distance from Chasewater Country Park, this is a bungalow that has been fitted to the highest specification, boasting extremely generous dimensions throughout, positioned in a very spacious and beautifully landscaped garden which also benefits from being very private. The property benefits from sitting behind electric gates and sits down a long sweeping driveway, with useful exterior store and home office sitting beside the driveway. In front of the house is a large forecourt providing a huge parking area, whilst a gate opens down one side to that stunning garden with large paved patio providing a lovely entertaining space. The bungalow itself has a very welcoming, spacious hallway with large cloaks storage cupboard and guest WC off. There are two receptions, including a large living room and flexible second reception room with a beautiful garden room with vaulted ceiling overlooking the grounds. There is also a spectacular open plan living kitchen diner with utility room off. There are four bedrooms, the master being particularly large and boasting a super stylish en-suite bathroom, whilst there is a family shower room, which has also been superbly updated. The property even benefits from having its own sprinkler system installed and is certainly a home which can only be fully appreciated with a viewing. Don't miss out and call us to book in your viewing today!
