Location

2 Church Lane is located down a small lane, opposite the church, in the pretty coastal village of Walberswick. It is well known for its unspoilt sand and shingle beach, grassy dunes and surrounding heathland. It boasts tea rooms, public houses, a village shop and art gallery. A foot ferry operates during the summer months, taking walkers and holiday makers to the popular town of Southwold.

Southwold is home to a thriving high street, numerous pubs and restaurants, a harbour, beach and pier. The coastline either side of the town is amongst the most unspoilt in the country, while the surrounding countryside of the Suffolk Heritage Coast is designated an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty and includes such attractions as Dunwich Forest, RSPB nature reserve at Minsmere, Henham Park and the Benacre and Covehithe Broads.

There are further local amenities in Halesworth (9 miles to the west) and Lowestoft (18 miles to the north), with all the facilities one would expect from a larger town. Both also offer access to branch line rail services running to the county town of Ipswich and beyond to London Liverpool Street.

Description

2 Church Lane is a semi-detached former local authority house with redbrick elevations under a tiled roof. It was built in 1969 and has well laid out accommodation over two storeys. It comprises entrance hall, sitting room, kitchen/breakfast room, downstairs bathroom and three good-sized first floor bedrooms. The property benefits from double-glazing throughout and an external floor-mounted oil-fired boiler to rear. It is presented in fair condition, albeit a schedule of refurbishment may need to be carried out. The property has the space and scope for further development subject to obtaining the relevant consents.

Outside

The property is approached from the lane via a parking space and path. The front garden is mainly laid to lawn with established shrubs and hedged boundaries. The garden continues to the side of the property, leading to the rear garden, which is enclosed by close boarded fencing. This area is mainly laid to lawn with concrete hardstanding abutting the rear of the property. There is a brick-built outhouse, which is useful for storage, and an external oil-fired boiler.

Method Of Sale

2 Church Lane must be marketed for a minimum period of 14 days to allow Flagship Housing to demonstrate that they have achieved best value. Please note that the vendor requires completion no later than 31st March 2025.
