Location

Foxburrow House will be found in an accessible location along a private road just off Saddlemakers Lane, between Melton and Ufford. Melton is a popular village with a well supported primary school, large playingfield with tennis courts and children's play equipment, good pub/restaurant, The Coach and Horses, small petrol station, Spar convenience store and a railway station. The village is also home to Riduna Park; a high priority commercial development that includes East Suffolk Council's office and Honey & Harvey. The adjoining village of Ufford benefits from two excellent public houses, The Crown and The White Lion, as well as the Ufford Park Hotel and Golf Club.

The neighbouring town of Woodbridge is probably best known for its outstanding riverside setting. It is also a very popular market town, offering a good choice of schooling in both the state and private sectors, a wide variety of shops and restaurants, a cinema/theatre and marina. Both Melton and Woodbridge benefit from rail links to Ipswich, where Inter City rail services to London's Liverpool Street station take just over the hour. The popular Heritage Coastline destinations of Orford, Aldeburgh, Thorpeness and Southwold are also within a short driving distance. The County Town of Ipswich is approximately 10 miles to the south-west. The A12 trunk road, which links the north and the south of the county, is also a short distance to the west.

Description

Foxburrow House is a beautiful period family house with excellent range of outbuildings, together with formal gardens and grounds of approximately 4 acres. Believed to date originally from the late 16th Century, the property has a Georgian façade and exhibits classic Georgian architectural features with large sash windows that provide plenty of light to all the rooms, together with good views of the surrounding gardens and grounds. The principal rooms are all of good proportion and the stunning garden room, which provides wonderful, versatile accommodation was added in 2018. In addition, Foxburrow House enjoys an excellent range of outbuildings including stables, garages, workshops, a cartlodge/machinery store and dog kennels, which serve the grounds that include formal landscaped gardens, a large pond and railed paddocks. In all the gardens and grounds extend to approximately 4.5 acres (1.8 ha) in all.

Outbuildings

To the rear of Foxburrow House and surrounding the courtyard, are a wonderful range of outbuildings. These include the stables with tack room and stores with a canopy to the front providing a degree of protection from the elements. One of the stores houses the oil fired boiler and storage tanks. In addition there is the garage with bi-fold wooden doors and staircase providing access to a useful attic store room. From the garage internal doors provide access to a well fitted workshop and a second garage/workshop. There is also a dog kennel. The block paving continues to the rear where there is an open fronted machinery store with lean-to, and from here there is also a second vehicular entrance.

Outside

A five bar gate opens onto a gravel driveway that leads to the front of Foxburrow House, the principal front door to the Entrance Hall and the door serving the Kitchen and Breakfast Room. There is a wonderful formal garden to the rear of Foxburrow House and facing both south and west, this area enjoys the sun throughout the day. The garden comprises a large terraced area, that links wonderfully well with the Garden Room. The garden itself is predominantly laid to grass for ease of maintenance, but interspersed with a number of well stocked borders that contain a variety of specimen flowers and shrubs, together with a number of mature trees and a summerhouse. Beside the driveway is a large pond, and beyond this, to the south, is the front paddock. Extending to nearly 2 acres, this is fully enclosed within post and rail fencing and has water connected.

The rear garden includes an enclosed area of raised beds, an orchard with established plum, apple, pear, loganberry and walnut trees, a chicken run and fruit cage. There is also the rear paddock, that is also enclosed with post and rail fencing and accessed via a five bar gate, which extends to approximately 0.4 acres.
