Location

The property is located close to the centre of Melton, within walking distance of the railway station. Melton is a popular village with a well supported primary school, large playingfield with tennis courts and children's play equipment, good pub/restaurant-The Coach and Horses, small petrol station and Spar convenience store.

The village is also home to Riduna Park; a high priority commercial development that includes East Suffolk Council's office and Honey & Harvey. Woodbridge, just a quarter of a mile away, is probably best known for its outstanding riverside setting. It is also a very popular market town, offering a good choice of schooling in both the state and private sectors, a wide variety of shops and restaurants, a cinema/theatre and marina. Both Melton and Woodbridge also benefit from rail links to Ipswich, where Inter City rail services to London's Liverpool Street station take just over the hour.

The popular Heritage Coastline destinations of Orford and Aldeburgh are approximately 10 miles and 15 miles respectively. The County Town of Ipswich is approximately 8 miles to the south-west.

Description

Believed to date from the late 1980s, 11 The Debenside is a light and spacious three bedroom semi-detached house that is well located for the centre of the village and railway station.

In all, the accommodation extends to just over 1,000 square feet and comprises an entrance hall, large open-plan L-shaped sitting and dining room, kitchen/breakfast room and recently refurbished cloakroom. On the first floor there are two double bedrooms, a single bedroom that could also be utilised as a study and a shower room.

Outside there are hard landscaped gardens to the front and rear which include a number of mature shrubs and trees, together with an offset driveway/parking area that is sufficiently large enough for two vehicles.
