Location

The subject property is located within the heart of the village of Knodishall. The village itself benefits from a shop, garage, public house and primary school. Secondary schooling is available in the neighbouring town of Leiston (1.4 miles), where there is also a Co-operative supermarket and cinema. The larger town of Saxmundham, is about 4 miles to the east, where further facilities include Waitrose and Tesco supermarkets, and rail services to Ipswich with some direct trains through to London's Liverpool Street station. The county town of Ipswich lies about 22 miles to the south-west. The Heritage Coast is just 2.5 miles from the property, with the popular coastal towns of Thorpeness, Aldeburgh and Southwold all within easy reach.

Description

53 Leiston Road is a detached bungalow believed to date from the 1960s or 1970s of what appears to be of brick construction under a predominantly concrete pantile roof. The property benefits from all mains services and there is a gas fired central heating system. The dwelling has UPVC double glazed windows throughout and relatively modern kitchen and bathroom facilities. To the rear of the bungalow is a garden room that was added in more recent decades. The property has off-road parking, an integral garage and a garden to the front, side and rear.

The accommodation comprises the following:
