Low Birks

Ulpha, Broughton-In-Furness

Low Birks is a deceptive well proportioned and spacious five bedroom, three bathroom and three reception rooms, which presents a highly versatile property. It could possibly house an ageing relative in part of the extension/annex as well provide a generous family home. Positioned in an idyllic peace and tranquil location nestled among open countryside, in a gently elevated position enjoying stunning panoramic views over the adjacent country side with far reaching fell views.

The original cottage which is behind traditional white render is believed to date back to the 17th Century. It was subsequently amalgamated with the adjoining barn, around the 1990's. This helped create the extremely well proportioned kitchen/diner, the principle living room with roof terrace and fabulous view, as well as an additional reception room, shower room, utility and bedroom.

Overall the property provides an attractive light and airy feel with good size windows allowing the natural light to flow in and enjoying lovely views from the majority of rooms. The attractive and private plot extends to approximately 0.9 acres with a combination of manageable lawn area, natural woodland and small orchard. This property would suit a wide range of buyers looking for a permanent or second home.

Situated in the beautiful Duddon Valley, which is a peaceful and an unspoilt area in the southwest corner of the Lake District National Park. Nestled between Coniston and Eskdale, the valley was a favourite of the poet William Wordsworth, and has often been called a "hidden gem". It is set amongst the beautiful Furness and Dunnerdale fells and close to the picturesque village of Broughton-in-Furness (approx 5 miles) which has previously been voted Village of the Year in 2002. The property is also close to the market town of Ulverston.

The popular Newfield Inn, in Seathwaite is approx. 2.5 miles away. There are good road links via the A595 and A590 trunk road connecting it to the M6, Barrow-in-Furness and north to Scotland. The valley can be approached from the heart of the Lake District National Park either from Coniston (approx. 14 miles) or Ambleside (approx. 20 miles).
