A traditional bay windowed semi-detached house in a highly favoured location close to Canada Hill primary school and around a mile from the town centre. With a first-class interior finish and a layout which offers impressive extended living space the house occupies a surprisingly large plot with raised timber deck adjoining the house ideal for entertaining, a lower paved patio adjacent to which is a useful garden room with French doors and completing the garden is a long lawn on a couple of levels. At the side a driveway provides off road parking.

Margaret Road is located in the highly sought after Ogwell area of Newton Abbot itself not far from Bakers Park with its play areas café and sports facilities with the picturesque grounds and riverside walks of the National trusts Bradley Manor even closer.

The Accommodation:

Stepping inside the interior is smartly presented with what is thought to be the original front door with its run ray glazed panel opening to the entrance hall with turning staircase to the first floor. Off the hall is a useful separate WC with hand basin. Overlooking the front through a three-sided bay window is a cosy lounge with a wood burner. The real hub of the house is the show stopping kitchen / dining / family room which has been extended in the past to provide a fabulous open plan area with part-vaulted ceiling with roof lights and a bi fold door opening to the adjoining decked terrace, The dining area has a wide be spoke integrated storage and display unit whilst the kitchen area is fitted with an extensive range of cabinets including a large island.

On the first floor the layout is what one would expect with three bedrooms and a first-class family bathroom including a free-standing bath and wet room style shower. Completing the picture is an impressive loft area which is accessed via a full staircase from the landing and is fully plastered decorated and has two Velux roof windows flooding it with natural light.

Outside:

Large rear garden with raised timber deck separate paved patio long lawn and useful garden room.

Parking:

Driveway to the side.

Directions:
