Greece Cottage

1 Main Street

This welcoming, Grade II Listed semi detached cosy and characterful cottage is nestled in the heart of the historic and quaint seaside village of Heysham. Tucked away off the main thoroughfare, the setting is delightful, a peaceful retreat, and would be perfect for those seeking a coastal escape for rest, relaxation and sea air as the property gives direct access onto the beach.

According to Historic England, along with the adjoining property it was built as Heysham Rectory in the 17th century, extended in the 18th century and sub-divided into two cottages in the 19th century.

In the same family for generations, this unique and quirky cottage has been much loved and enjoyed over the decades and whilst it has been updated in that time (with mod cons such as gas central heating), it still retains exposed ceiling beams and feature stone walls which add enormous personality to the property. The front door opens straight into the sitting room which provides a warm welcome with the multi-fuel stove set onto a slate hearth and within a stone chimney breast. A cased opening leads into the split level dining kitchen with fitted cabinets and space to have your dining table and chairs. Also on the ground floor is a practical and useful shower/laundry room. Off the first floor landing there are two double bedrooms, both with fitted wardrobes and the family bathroom with Jacuzzi bath. From one of the bedrooms are breathtaking panoramic sea views.

Location

Nestled in the heart of the charming old part of Heysham village, Greece Cottage offers a delightful opportunity for those seeking comfort, convenience and the complete essence of a village lifestyle. At the heart of the village is Grade I Listed St Peter's Church and the ruins of St Patrick's Chapel which lie on The Barrows, an unspoilt stretch of coastline which boasts stunning views across the Irish Sea towards the Isle of Man, the Lake District fells and the Lancashire coast. Exceptionally popular as a local walk as is the fabulous promenade which stretches to Morecambe from the village. The village has a popular pub, The Royal as well as a number of cafes. With a strong sense of community there are a selection of shops (including a Tesco Metro and Co-op) and a public library within walking distance (0.5 mile) at Strawberry Gardens on Heysham Road. The village also has a primary school and Health Centre, astroturf recreational facility and a golf club.

Heysham is well served by buses with frequent services to Morecambe and Lancaster and there is a branchline train station in Morecambe with connections to Lancaster where the station lies on the main west coast line. By car, the village is well served by the Bay Gateway link road providing excellent access to the M6 motorway.

Outside

There is a small front garden and an enclosed rear yard with an ornamental garden pond and the stone built former outside privy, now a useful garden store.
